

Do not weaken New Jersey's consumer protection laws, specifically, the Do not call program. The number of New Jersey subscribers should tell you loud and clear that the people do not want this law altered.